

Dennis PROFILE

EXPANDED PRODUCT DESCRIPTION INFORMATION

PROFILE is a comprehensive database of product information for food industry products. It contains valuable marketing and specification information on a vast array of products. The information in PROFILE includes serving suggestions, nutritional information, ingredient statements, packaging and storage information, preparation and cooking instructions, and much more. This information is collected directly from the manufacturer and placed in the PROFILE database.

PROFILE is widely used throughout food industry channels so you have easy access to all of the information you need to make the right decisions when it comes to selecting which products to buy.

PROFILE includes:

- Product pictures
- Storage information
- Product benefits
- Serving suggestions
- Preparation information
- Nutritional information
